Dear Parent/Carer

In preparation for the upcoming mock exams in GCSE English Language, the English department will be running revision sessions available to all Year 11 students to re-visit and practise those questions they have under-performed in.

There will be 5 available sessions for English Language after school on Tuesdays. Your child should, in consultation with their subject teachers, attend the sessions listed below where their class is identified. All the sessions begin in the week beginning Tuesday 23rd November.
